ABOUT ME

I am a motivated student seeking to develop my skills in the field of multimedia and digital technologies. During my studies, I have gained practical experience working with web technologies, design and video editing tools, interactive solutions, as well as basic back-end and database technologies. My experience in customer service has helped me communicate clearly, understand user needs, and work efficiently in different situations. I am looking for an internship where I can further develop my professional skills and take part in practical projects.
